Hymn: Joy to the World

AHB 224 Tune: Antioch Text: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Joy to the world
the Lord has come!
let earth receive her king, let every heart prepare him room
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven, and heaven and nature sing!

Joy to the earth
the saviour reigns!
let songs be heard on high,
while fields and streams and hills and plains
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness,
and wonders of his love,
and wonders of his love,
and wonders, wonders of his love.

Introduction

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

I bring you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. Luke 2:10-11

The Christmas Candle is lit.

Come Lord Jesus
We come to you in living faith.
Come to bring God's kingdom
We come to you in repentance.
Come in the power of God's Spirit
We come to be your disciples.
Come Lord Jesus Come
We come to you our true hope.

The congregation sits or kneels.

The Deacon says

Let us pray.
Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

Led by the Deacon.

Christ the bright morning star has come to dispel the darkness of our hearts.
In his light let us examine ourselves and confess our sins.

Lord have mercy.
Christ have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

Silence is kept.

Let us bring our weaknesses and infirmities to Him, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant says

May the God of all healing and forgiveness draw you to himself that you may behold the glory of his Son, the Word made flesh, and be cleansed from all your sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gloria said by all standing

Glory to God in the highest,
And peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
Almighty God and Father,
 We worship you, we give you thanks,
 We praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only son of the Father,
 Lord God, Lamb of God
 You take away the sin of the world:
 Have mercy on us;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father:
 Receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High
 Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit,
 In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Prayer for Christmas Day

The Celebrant prays

God most High, whose eternal Word chose a dwelling among us, that we might live your presence: grant us a spirit of wisdom to know how rich is the glory you have given us, and how great is the hope to which we are called in the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit or kneel

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 52:7-10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns."

⁸ Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the Lord to Zion. ⁹ Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰ The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Hear the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading: Hebrews 1:1-4

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, ² but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. ³ He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, ⁴ having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Hear the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 1:1-14

The people stand

The Lord be with you and also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John chapter 1 beginning at verse 1. Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was in the beginning with God. ³ All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being ⁴ in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. ⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. ⁸ He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. ⁹ The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. ¹¹ He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. ¹² But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, ¹³ who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon: Check In With Jesus

The Dean

The Creed

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through Him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
He came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers Please sit or kneel.

We rejoice in the good news sung by the angels, checked out by the shepherds, and celebrated by the wisemen, that in a stable in Bethlehem our Saviour was born and our God checked in with us, in Jesus, Emmanuel. In confidence then we bring our prayers through Christ the Lord.

Silence is kept

Wonderful Counsellor, give your wisdom to the rulers of the nations to bring peace and justice to this world. Guide us so that we may welcome the stranger, protect the weak, and provide sanctuary for all.

Lord Jesus, God with us

bring your grace, truth and light.

Mighty God, we give thanks for your creation. Help us to be good stewards of the earth and share its bounty fairly.

Lord Jesus, God with us

bring your grace, truth and light.

Everlasting Father, we pray for our families and those we love. Be with all who mourn, are lonely or ill, and especially for those who suffer as followers of Jesus that they may know the true hope of being your children.

Lord Jesus, God with us

bring your grace, truth and light.

Prince of peace, help us to follow your ways of love and service so that we may bring your good news to all. May we, with all who have followed Christ, be welcomed into the fullness of joy in your coming kingdom.

Lord Jesus, God with us

bring your grace, truth and light.

As you taught us we are confident to pray for the coming of your kingdom.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The Greeting of Peace The people stand. The Celebrant says

To us a child is born, to us a Son is given; and His name is called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Prince of Peace.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those whom he favours.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The people welcome each other with the words "Peace be with you"

Please do not move around the building during this time

Offertory Hymn: Angels from the realms of glory

AHB 235 (with additional verse 5) Text: James Montgomery Tune: Iris

A collection is taken for the work of the Cathedral.

Angels, from the realms of glory wing your flight o'er all the earth;
you who sang creation's story
now proclaim Messiah's birth;

Come and worship

Christ, the newborn king:

come and worship,

worship Christ the newborn king.

Shepherds in the field abiding, watching o'er your flocks by night, God with man is now residing;
yonder shines the infant Light;

Wise men, leave your contemplations;
brighter visions beam afar;
seek the great Desire of nations;
you have seen his natal Star:

Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear suddenly the Lord descending, in his temple shall appear:

Though an infant now we view him,
he shall fill his Father's throne, gather all the nations to him;
every knee shall then bow down:

The Great Thanksgiving

The Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All glory and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, ever living God.

We give you thanks and praise for our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

In your Word made flesh

you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory

in the face of Jesus Christ.

By His death on the cross and rising to new life,

He offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for His people.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Merciful God, we thank you For these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine,
and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night He was betrayed Jesus took bread;
And when He had given you thanks
He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying,
'Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, He took the cup and again giving you thanks;
He gave it to His disciples saying,
'Drink from this, all of you.
This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

Therefore, we do as our Saviour has commanded:
Proclaiming his offering of himself
Made once for all upon the cross,
His mighty resurrection and glorious ascension and looking for His coming again, we celebrate with this bread and this cup,
His one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son
And bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom and in whom,
in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
we worship you, Father,
in songs of never-ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the Bread and says

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body in Christ.

For we all share in the one bread.

In Jesus, God has checked in with us and remains with us. Renewed by God's presence with us we take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with rejoicing.

Sending out of God's people The Celebrant says

God of heaven, dwelling among us, we thank you for feeding us with this holy food. By your grace keep us ever faithful to your Word made flesh that as his body in the world we may bring your presence to all people.

Most loving God, you send us into the world you love. Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage in the power of the Spirit.
